3 Introduction to Research

- Introductory course to teach the “language of research” to undergraduate nursing students
- Teaches basic concepts of research as a basis for graduate research courses

4 Traditional Classroom

- Large group lectures
- Open discussion
- Small group projects
- In-class quizzes
- Individual papers

5 Small group projects

- Major critique of selected research study
- Research utilization poster or PowerPoint presentation

6 Online Adaptation

- Online content notes
- Online quizzes
- Small group or paired projects
- Individual research study critiques

7 Advantages of Traditional Classroom

- Access to peers
- Access to faculty
- Real-time group discussion
- Practice with group process

8 Disadvantages of Traditional Classroom

- Lecture format
- Limited discussion
- Commuting and parking

9 Advantages of Online Classroom

- Flexibility of scheduling
- No traveling
- Self-paced
- Opportunities for all students to discuss content

10 Disadvantages of Online Classroom

- Delayed response to questions and discussion
- No face-to-face interaction with peers and faculty
- Requires increased time management skills of students and faculty

11 Modifications

- Changed poster presentation to online PowerPoint slides
- Planning to change slides to a written paper format

12 Modifications (Continued)

- Eliminated requirement for group activities
- Increased self-paced completion of course requirements
